Re: Charles W. Engelhard, JR.

On August 15, 1961, an article captioned "Kennedy Sends 3 to Gabon" appeared in the"New York Times", page 5, column 4, under a Washington dateline of August 14 reflecting that President Kennedy today named Ambassador W. Wendell Blancke, Charles W. Engelhard, JR. of Far Hills, New Jersey, and Herbert E. Tucker, JR., Assistant Attorney General of Massachusetts to represent him at ceremonies commemorating the first anniversary of Gabon, scheduled to begin Wednesday.

According to"Who's Who", 1960-1961, Charles W. Engelhard is president of Engelhard Industries, Newark , New Jersey, resides in Far Hills, New Jersey, and was born February 15, 1917.

[redacted] (U)

In this regard it will be noted that according to the records of the New York County Clerk, ATC is a New York corporation formed in 1924. It has acted since then as a buying and selling agency in the United States for the Soviet Government. Since 1949 it has been registered with the Department of Justice under the provisions of the Foreign Agents Registration Act.

Source further advised that Engelhard Industries is seriously considering the purchase of a definite quantity each month of a precious metal beginning now and going through the end of the year, but a definite decision must wait until Engelhard returns from Europe, which will probably be at the end of next week. Walter Jenkins of the Vice President's Office called 2-13-61. The four captioned individuals are being considered for positions in the new administration. The Vice President wanted to know if he could receive any guidance as to whether these individuals should be recommended by him or not.

After checking, I returned Mr. Jenkins' call and told him that we had never investigated Mr. Wynn, therefore, could be of no assistance. He was told that we had nothing derogatory concerning Dreyfus. It was also indicated that we had previously investigated Elmo Roper back in the early days of the Roosevelt administration however this investigation would necessarily have to be brought up to date before we could be of any assistance. I told Jenkins that Elmo Roper on occasions had shown overtures of friendship to the FBI and on one occasion had praised the Director very highly indicating that the Director was the "third most popular man in the U. S." I told Jenkins he might like to check other sources, however, in connection with Roper.

In connection with Englehard, I told Jenkins that the Army had investigated him a number of years ago and would have the only thorough investigation on him to date. It was indicated that we had not investigated Mr. Englehard. Bureau files reflect that Englehard in 1944 had been dating Judy Ware, the daughter of Jessica Smith Ware Abt. Judy Ware became ill and was confined to the Manhattan General Hospital for treatment for severe case of syphilis which she supposedly contracted from Englehard. Judy Ware's father was Harold Ware, the late son of Ella Reeves "Mother" Bloor, one of the founders of the American Communist Party. Englehard offered to pay all expenses for Judy Ware's treatment. They were supposedly very enamoured over each other, however, information was later received that Judy Ware married another man.

CHARLES WILLIAM ENGELHARD, JR.
Born: February 15, 1917
New York, New York
NY

No investigation pertinent to your inquiry has been conducted by this Bureau concerning Charles William Engelhard, Jr.

A confidential informant who has furnished reliable information in the past advised in May, 1944, that Lieutenant Charles Englehart was the fiancee of Judith Ware.

In June, 1944, a lawyer representing the interests of Charles Engelhard enterprises advised a representative of this Bureau, in connection with another matter, that Charles Engelhard had one son, Charlie Engelhard who was at that time a Lieutenant in the Army Air Corps at Gunther Field, Alabama. The lawyer advised that Charlie Engelhard had recently become infatuated with a girl named Judith Ware and had indicated his intention to marry her. In checking, the lawyer had determined that Judith Ware was the daughter of the late Harold Ware, son of Ella Reeve "Mother" Bloor, a member of the National Committee of the Communist Political Association. Judith Ware's mother was Jessica Smith. Harold Ware was at one time leader of the communist underground movement in Washington, D. C. In March, 1939, it was reported that Judy Ware, granddaughter of "Mother" Bloor was a student at Reed College in Oregon and was a member of the Young Communist League and the American Student Union. The Young Communist League has been cited pursuant to Executive Order 10450. The American Student Union was cited as a communist front by the Special Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1311, dated March 29, 1944. [redacted] 100-316282-4)

You may also wish to refer to files of the Department of the Army for information concerning Engelhard enterprises of which Charles Engelhard was the leading official and Charles Engelhard, Jr., was a member of the Boards of Directors in 1944. [redacted]

World War II, he had dated Judy Ware, the daughter of Jessica Smith Ware Abt. Judy Ware's father was Harold Ware, the late son of Ella Reeves "Mother" Bloor, one of the founders of the American Communist Party. We learned, through a technical surveillance, that in 1944 Judy Ware entered a New York hospital for treatment of a venereal disease, which she had supposedly contracted from Charles Engelhard. We have no substantiation of this, and we learned that shortly thereafter Judy Ware married another individual.

The following is a duplicate of a memorandum dated 5/6/64 which recommended that a letter dated 5/7/64 be sent to the White House concerning an allegation of a personal nature against the President. Since other action was required on the memorandum and it had not been returned to the Internal Security Section it was placed on special locate on 5/12/64. We have since been in contact with representatives of the Service Section of the Files and Communications Division, with the office of Assistant to the Director, Belmont, with the office of Assistant Director DeLoach and with Assistant Director Tavel. To date the original memorandum has never been located. Mr. DeLoach's Office is quite positive that the letter dated 5/7/64 has never been delivered to the White House.

RE: [redacted] b7D

Upon interview on 4/27/64 [redacted] furnished 15 separate memoranda containing highly derogatory information regarding various highly placed persons in the Government, including the President. (See item 1 attached.) [redacted] states these memoranda contain all information in his possession concerning the individuals, he will not reveal his sources and, if pressed to do so, will terminate all future contacts with the FBI.

Some of the information in the memoranda relates to personal misconduct and poor morals. (See items 2, 3, 4 and 5 attached concerning [redacted] Item 5 is enclosed in an envelope marked "Obscene.") There are, in addition, numerous wide-ranging allegations, many of a subversive nature, concerning [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

Honorable Marvin Watson
Special Assistant to the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Watson:

Mrs. Mildred Stegall has requested an FBI name check on Charles W. Engelhard, Jr., born February 15, 1917, New York City.

A review of the records of the FBI indicates that Mr. Engelhard has never been investigated by this Bureau; however, the following is a summary of information regarding him.

Mr. Engelhard is described as an extremely wealthy individual, President of Engelhard Industries, Newark, New Jersey, and is connected financially with/or serves on the Board of Directors for numerous other large corporations in the United States and other countries. In May, 1944, it was learned that Lieutenant Charles Engelhart was the fiance of Judith Ware. In June of 1944, a lawyer representing the interests of Charles Engelhard Enterprises (at that time these interests were run by Mr. Engelhard's father) advised that Charles Engelhard was a Lieutenant in the Army Air Corps at Gunther Field, Alabama. He had become infatuated with Judith Ware and indicated his intention to marry her. Judith Ware was the daughter of the late Harold Ware who was the son of Ella Reeves "Mother" Bloor, one of the founders of the Communist Party, USA. Harold Ware was at one time leader of the communist underground movement in Washington, D.C. Judith Ware was a member of the Young Communist League and the American Student Union.

The Young Communist League and the Communist Party, USA, have been cited as subversive organizations by the Department of Justice pursuant to Executive Order 10450. The American Student Union was cited as a communist front by the House Committee on Un-American Activities.
